Removal of Non-Marketable Securities

Customer Instruction and Acknowledgement Form

By executing this form, you hereby request that your introducing broker-dealer or investment advisor ("Your Introducing Firm") sell each of the securities listed below for one penny ($.01) per position to Axos Clearing.

By signing and returning this form, you acknowledge and represent the following concerning your decision to sell these securities to Your Introducing Firm's "non-marketable securities account" or account with an equivalent use:

- Your decision to sell is voluntary.
- Your decision to sell these securities has been made only after you have had the opportunity to evaluate the costs, benefits and suitability of electing to sell, and the opportunity to discuss such factors with an advisor of your choosing.
- You understand that your decision to sell may have certain tax loss or other consequences and that prior to electing to sell, you have had the opportunity to speak with an appropriate tax advisor or professional concerning any such consequences.
- You will have no further claim to the securities you have elected to sell.
